÷ 9	Approved For Release 2009/03/05 : CIA-RDP82-00457R007200160010-1
	CLASSIFICATION SECRET	25 X 1
2. m - 1.0	CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY REPORT
	INFORMATION REPORT CD NO.
COUNTRY	Korea/China DATE DISTR. 30 N	larch 195
SUBJECT	Communist Military Activities at Wonsan NO. OF PAGES 2	25X1
PLACE	NO. OF ENOLS	1 5 m
ACQUIRED	(LISTED BELOW)
DATE OF INFO.	SUPPLEMENT TO 25. REPORT NO.	X1
The Consults	* Except as noted	25X1
or the convers	CONVAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE INFIONAL DEPENDED TO THE EXPLORAGE ACT SO SEE, AS ADMINISTRIC RECEIVED, THE VARIOUS OF THE EXPLORAGE ACT SO THE SELFCULULATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION and the party of t	A SEPRODUCTION OF THIS PROMUNITED.	25X1
1.	Four thousand North Korean troops in guerrilla training are being sent
1.	Four thousand North Korean troops in guerrilla training are being sent to the east coast although their training is not completed. The North Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsen
2.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are mount in
	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-12, 38-18) is being underground.	25 X 1
2.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front.	25X1 25X1
2.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-12, 38-18) is being underground.
2.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines.	25 X 1
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 20 26)	25X1 25X1
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang.	25X1 25X1
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchum (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang	25X1 25X1 25X
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang.	25X1 25X1 25X
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchum (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang	25X1 25X1 25X
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchum (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang	25X1 25X1 25X1
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchun (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang (127-37, 38-42) is heavily mined. The terrain features covering the road have well-built pill boxes and entrenchments.	25X1 25X1 25X′ 25X′
2. 3. 4. 5.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchun (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang (127-37, 38-42) is heavily mined. The terrain features covering the road have well-built pill boxes and entrenchments.	25X1 25X1 25X1 25X1
2. 3. 4. 5.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchun (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang (127-37, 38-12) is heavily mined. The terrain features covering the road have well-built pill boxes and entrenchments.	25X1 25X1 25X′ 25X′
2. 3. 4. 5.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-12, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchun (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang (127-37, 38-12) is heavily mined. The terrain features covering the road have well-built pill boxes and entrenchments.	25X1 25X1 25X′ 25X′
2. 3. 4.	Korean government fears an invasion of Wonsan. Chinese Communist Air Force personnel are reported constructing underground revetments at Wonsan. No planes were observed. Sibyon-ni (126-42, 38-18) is being used as a regrouping point for troops coming from the south central front. The railroad station at Kalma (127-28, 39-08) is being used as a supply point where supplies are offloaded and carried to the destination by oxcart or human porters. One boxcar being unloaded contained Soviet-type sea mines. The railroad between Anbyon and Wonsan is in operation. The railroad from Wonsan to Hamhung was not operating on 28 February and 1 March. The Kowon railroad station (127-15, 39-26) is used as a distribution point for supplies originating at Pyongyang. The road between Tongchum (? 127-51, 38-55) and Hoeyang (127-37, 38-42) is heavily mined. The terrain features covering the road have well-built pill boxes and entrenchments.	25X1 25X1 25X′ 25X′

CONFIDENCE

SECRET

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY

25X1

) ₀	One battalion of North Korean troops arrived at 8:00 p.m. on 1 March at Hakko (127-44, 39-07) and Amnyong-ni (127-44, 39-08). The command post is located in the U-shaped school building in Amnyong-ni.	25 X 1
5		25X1

SECRET

CONFIDENTIAL